Felony Expungement Factsheet

A new law will make it possible for thousands of Kentuckians to clear their criminal records. Here's what you need to know:

What is expungement?

In Kentucky, when you are arrested, charged with a crime, or convicted of a crime, that information stays on your criminal record. Expungement is the legal process of completely removing an arrest, charge, or conviction from your record. It means that you can answer "NO" when asked on an application if you have been convicted of a crime. This can help you find a job or a place to live.

How does the new law change expungement in Kentucky?

- Certain Class D felonies will be eligible for expungement
- It will be easier to expunge misdemeanors, even if you have many on your record
- If you went to a grand jury and were not indicted, you will be able to remove those charges

Examples of eligible Class D felonies

- ✓ Drug possession
- ✓ Theft by unlawful taking
- ✓ Possession of a forged instrument
- ✓ Flagrant non-support
- ✓ Criminal mischief
- ✓ Receiving stolen property
- ✓ Tampering with physical evidence
- ✓ Find the full list at CleanSlateKentucky.com

How much does expungement cost?

Misdemeanor expungement costs $100, and Class D felony expungement costs $500. Both require a Certificate of Eligibility, which costs $40 to receive.

So what do I need to do?

The law does not go into effect until mid-July, so you cannot apply for expungement yet. In the meantime, you can find the Kentucky Expungement Guide at our website. This will help you check your eligibility, and give you instructions for requesting an expungement. Check our events page to find a free expungement information session in your area.
